

I have had 3 cell phone numbers because of carrier changes. It is very inconvenient to change numbers. Most of my personal and business contacts are given a cell phone number because it is always with me. Portability of cell numbers should be made mandatory. My home phone service was changed and did just that, I would not have changed it otherwise.